

UNDERSTANDING VARIOUS STUDENTS' ORGANIZATIONS

A dark blue diagonal graphic element that starts from the bottom left corner and extends towards the top right corner, creating a triangular shape on the right side of the slide.

PURPOSE OF STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

The purpose of student organizations is to provide opportunities to engage, to learn, and to lead, allowing students to pursue their passions and interests with other students while developing leadership and organizational skills

WHAT IS A STUDENT ORGANIZATION ?

A student organization is defined as a group of undergraduate or graduate students who unite to promote or celebrate a common interest. This includes technical and cultural organizations, fests and student welfare issues.

TYPES OF STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS ASSOCIATED WITH POLITICAL PARTIES

1. ABVP
2. NSUI
3. AISA

1. Students' Gymkhana

NEUTRAL STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

ABVP : Akhil
Bhartiya
Vidhyarthi
Parishad

Akhil Bharatiya
Vidyarthi Parishad is a right-wing all India student organisation
affiliated to the RSS

Purpose of ABVP:

ABVP's Objective is to create nationalist mindset and social sympathy among the student mass. There is a role of the students towards the society too, is the philosophy ABVP work with.

Impact of ABVP:

The regular activities of ABVP include amongst others, waging a constant struggle against the increasing commercialization of education; and along with it dwelling on the challenges facing our country, like that of illegal Bangladeshi infiltration, terrorism, Maoist violence, separatist tendencies in Kashmir and other areas, to create an awakening of the entire society and channelize students' power to remonstrate on such issues.

NSUI : National Student Union of India

The National Students' Union of India, the student wing of the Indian National Congress, was established on 9 April 1971. The organisation was founded by Indira Gandhi after merging the Kerala Students Union and the West Bengal State Chhatra Parishad to form a national students' organisation.

Purpose of NSUI:

NSUI is the source of voice of the students (behalf of the students) to uplift the plight of facilities in universities, level of education and to empower the student community to create responsible citizens and leaders based on the values of democracy, secularism, liberty, quality & equality

Impact of NSUI:

NSUI has initiated many campaigns like Behtar Bharat, I am the change, Pehli Peedhi, Young Women leadership program and Take the Pledge for highlighting national issues and to promote the solutions.

AISA : All India Students' Association

All India Students' Association is a left wing student organisation in India. It describes itself as "the voice of the radical students' movement" and is affiliated to the Communist Party of India Liberation

Purpose of AISA:

Feeling the need to defeat the forces of far right communal fascism, and conservative neo-liberalism, and to fulfill the task of building a pan-India radical students' movement so as to not only win the struggle for students' rights, but also to channel the energy of country's youth into the task of nation building on progressive lines.

Impact of AISA:

AISA has launched many campaigns like Right to accomodation, Protest against Youth Loan Education Model, Protest against Agri bills. AISA has led the struggle for a radical surge of education, culture, society and politics.

Students' Gymkhana

Students' Gymkhana Council is the body that promotes the objectives of fostering extra-curricular, co-curricular activities, welfare of students, and their stay in the campus. Every IIT, NIT and IIIT has their own Students' Gymkhana.

Purpose of Students' Gymkhana:

The objective of a Students' Gymkhana is to give students a role in the administrative and academic governance of the Institute and help them develop leadership and administrative skills and most importantly to resolve issues related to student welfare.

Impact of Students' Gymkhana :

Students' Gymkhana keeps a check on every Academic, Sports, Cultural and Technical event/fest happening in the college and work towards the smooth functioning of the above mentioned.

THANK YOU!